Blessing of Fruit

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord,

All: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O Master, Lord our God,
You decreed that all of us offer to You “Yours of Your Own”; and You reward us with Your eternal good things.
You willingly accepted the offering of the widow, who gave according to her means.

Now also accept the offerings of these Your servants and make them worthy to be placed in Your eternal treasures.
Grant Your servants an abundance of Your earthly good things along with all that is beneficial to them.

For blessed is Your name and glorified is Your kingdom, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever.

All: Amen.

Priest: These fruits are blessed and sanctified by the sprinkling of this holy water and the grace of the Holy Spirit, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Joke of the Day

One Sunday, a priest woke realizing it was an exceptionally beautiful and sunny early spring day, and decided he just had to play golf. So, told the assistant priest that he was feeling sick, and convinced him to say mass for him that day. As soon as the assistant priest left, Father heading out of town to a golf course about 40 miles away. This way he would not be seen by anyone in the parish. Setting up the first tee he was alone. At about that time St. Peter leaned over to the Lord, while looking down from the heavens and exclaimed, “You’re not going to let him get away with this are You?” The Lord sighed and said, “I guess not” Just then Father hit the ball and it shot straight towards the pin, dropping just short of it, rolled up and fell into the hole. It was a 420 yard hole in one. St. Peter was astonished. He looked at the Lord and asked, “Why did You let him do that?”. The Lord smiled and replied, “Who’s he going to tell?”
