

The Prayer of the Church from Christ Our Pascha
Part Two of the Catechism presents the liturgical life of the Church, that is, the Church’s prayerful gathering in Christ. This gathering, or assembly, takes place in the power of the Holy Spirit in order to give praise and thanksgiving to the Father. This assembly constitutes a communication of God with his people. Here the Lord continues to speak and here he renews his salvific deeds for his people. At the same time, it is also the response of the Church to all the Lord’s deeds and words revealed in the history of salvation, and recognized and received by the Church in faith. (#327)
Chapter 1,” The Prayer of the Ecclesial Community,” describes the following aspects of the Church’s liturgical life: the Divine Liturgy, the Holy Mysteries (Sacraments), and the Liturgy of the Hours, as well as various consecrations and blessings. Liturgical services accompany each Christian from birth to death. With the light of Divine Grace they permeate every daily need, both material and spiritual. Through visible, earthly services inseparably bound to the invisible and heavenly - the community of the faithful enters into communion with God and shows itself to be a single family of God, “with one heart in one voice.” (#328)

Luke 18:10-14

Troparion (Tone 5)

Let us the faithful acclaim and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, and born of the Virgin for our salvation. For he willed to be lifted up on the cross in the flesh, to suffer death and to raise the dead by His glorious resurrection.

Kondakion (Tone 3)

Glory be to ... Let us bring sighs of sorrow to the Lord as did the publican and approach the Master as sinners, for He desires salvation for everyone. He grants forgiveness to all who repent. For as God, the One who is co-eternal with the Father, He became flesh for us.

Prokeimen (Tone 5)

You, O Lord, will guard us and will keep us from this generation, and forever.

Verse Save me, O Lord, for there is no longer left a just man.

You, O Lord, will guard us and will keep us from this generation, and forever.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse Your mercies, O Lord, I will sing forever; from generation to generation I will announce Your truth with my

This will be kept in the office in a file to complete any documentation that you may need in the future. Thank you for your help with the updating of the information.
