

Pentecost Sunday - Green Sunday -The iconography of the day refers to the descent of the Holy Spirit in form of tongues of fire on the heads of the Apostles. In the West, the Roman Church wears red as tongues of fire for Pentecost while those of the priests and deacons of the Eastern Church of Byzantine/Slavic liturgical tradition use green for the birth of the Church with new life. Thus, when we decorate our churches on Pentecost or Green Sunday with green branches of trees and shrubs, we acknowledge the beliefs and customs of the Slavs who infused into the religion of Byzantium new meanings to edify and enlighten our minds and to beautify our rites. Green is the color of spring and summer, the color of life, and life is an attribute of the Holy Spirit, “the Lord and giver of Life” who animates us all. Many of the faithful chose to wear green on this day.

Joke of the Day

A country preacher decided to spend the day hiking through the wilderness. Rounding a sharp bend in the trail, he collided with a bear and was sent tumbling down a steep grade. He landed on a rock, and broke both of his legs. With the ferocious bear charging at him from a distance, the preacher prayed, "Please forgive me for any wrongs I may have done, and grant me one wish—make a Christian out of the bear that is coming at me!" At that very instant, the bear skidded to a halt, fell to his knees, clasped his paws together, and began to pray aloud at the preacher's feet, "Dear God, please bless this food that I am about to receive."
