

In Preparation . . . A look at what is to Come

Pentecost Sunday - Green Sunday -The iconography of the day refers to the descent of the Holy Spirit in form of tongues of fire on the heads of the Apostles. In the West, the Roman Church wears red as tongues of fire for Pentecost while those of the priests and deacons of the Eastern Church of Byzantine/Slavic liturgical tradition use green for the birth of the Church with new life. Thus, when we decorate our churches on Pentecost or Green Sunday with green branches of trees and shrubs, we acknowledge the beliefs and customs of the Slavs who infused into the religion of Byzantium new meanings to edify and enlighten our minds and to beautify our rites. Green is the color of spring and summer, the color of life, and life is an attribute of the Holy Spirit, “the Lord and giver of Life” who animates us all. Many of the faithful chose to wear green on this day.

Loving God, You wrap Your arms around Your people and show Your everlasting love in the same way a mother loves her children.
We are grateful for the love You have taught us through the mothers in our lives:
our own mother who brought us into this world,
the mothers of friends who have welcomed us into their homes and families, our grandmothers who took time for us, and the mothers who have helped us even though we were not their children.

Bless all the mothers of this world today.
May they know the fullness of love they have shared and be blessed every day of their lives. Amen.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers.

Jokes of the Day

A mother mouse and her baby mouse are walking along when suddenly a cat attacks them. The mother mouse shouts, "BARK!!!" and the cat runs away. "See?", the mother mouse says to her baby. "Now do you see why it's important to learn a foreign language?"
