

In Preparation . . . A look at what is to Come

The Sunday following Pentecost is dedicated to All Saints, both those who are known to us, and those who are known only to God. The Descent of the Holy Spirit makes it possible for us to rise above our fallen state and to attain sainthood, thereby fulfilling God’s directive to “be holy, for I am holy” (Lev. 11:44, 1 Peter 1:16, etc.). Therefore, it is fitting to commemorate All Saints on the first Sunday after Pentecost. This feast may have originated at an early date, perhaps as a celebration of all martyrs, then it was broadened to include all men and women who had borne witness to Christ by their virtuous lives, even if they did not shed their blood for Him.

The hymnology for the feast of All Saints also lists six categories: “Rejoice, assembly of the Apostles, Prophets of the Lord, loyal choirs of the Martyrs, divine Hierarchs, Monastic Fathers, and the Righteous....”

Come, Holy Spirit. King of the Heavens;
Be thou the light of my very soul.
Fill up my being; instill with in me
a heart made pure renewed and made whole.

Graves will be blessed at Holy Name Cemetery on Tuesday, May 22 at 6:30PM. Every is asked to meet at the mausoleum for a Panihkida for all those on the Sorokousty list. Then, Father Andriy will bless the graves.

On major feast days before the Divine Liturgy, the Prayers of Litya are prayed over 5 loaves of bread, wheat, wine and oil. The items are used in a blessing at the end of liturgy. Father will anoint your head with oil and greet you with “Christ is among us” to which you reply, “He is and always will be.” The blessed bread is then taken and eaten by each of the faithful after they receive their blessing. This blessing is for everyone present. This is not a second communion. This is a special treat to all who attend the Holy Day Liturgy.

Jokes of the Day

After dying in a car crash, three friends go to heaven for orientation. They are all asked the same question: “When you are in your casket, friends and family are mourning over you, what would you like to hear them say about you?” The first guy immediately responds, “I would like to hear them say that I was one of the great doctors of my time, and a great family man.” The second guy says, “I would like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and school teacher who made a huge difference in our children of tomorrow.” The last guy thinks a minute and replies, “I’d like to hear them say . . . LOOK, HE’S MOVING!”
