

Blessing of Flowers

From ancient times we have been taught that when Mary, the Mother God, fell asleep the whole company of the Apostles - except Thomas - was miraculously brought together in Jerusalem. Amid divine and heavenly praises they commended her soul into the hands of God and placed her body in a little tomb in Gethsemane. For three days a choir of Angels continued to sing above her tomb. And on the third day Thomas arrived. So that he could venerate the body that had given birth to Christ God, the Apostles opened the tomb. They found not the body of the Mother of God but the winding sheet and the most beautiful and sweet-smelling flowers. Mary's body had been taken up into the heavens by her Son. Flowers were blessed from the earliest times in both East and West. Over time seeds and herbs used for medicinal purposes were also blessed, in commemoration of the many healings and blessings that were bestowed upon the pilgrims at Mary's tomb.

Post-Feast of the Dormition
10th Sunday after Pentecost

1 Corinthians 4:9-16

Matthew 17:14-23

Troparia

Resurrection Troparion (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Troparion of Dormition (Tone 1)

In giving birth you retained your virginity, in falling asleep you did not abandon the world, O Mother of God. You passed into life, for you are the Mother of Life, and by your prayers you delivered our souls from death.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,
Now and forever and ever. Amen

Kondation of the Dormition (Tone 2)

The tomb and death could not hold the Mother of God, unceasing in her intercession and unfailing hope of patronage, for, as the Mother of Life, she was transferred to life by Him Who had dwelt in her ever-virgin womb.

Prokeimonion (Tone 3)

My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God, my Savior.

verse Because He has regarded the humility of His handmaid;
for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

verse Rise up, Lord, to the place of Your rest, You and the ark of Your holiness.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

verse The Lord swore an oath to David, and will not go back on His word.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Irmos (Tone 1)

Seeing the pure one's falling asleep, angels marveled in wonder how the Virgin could ascend from earth to heaven. O pure Virgin, in you are conquered the bounds of nature, for childbirth remains virginal and death is betrothed to life. Virgin after childbearing and alive after death, O Mother of God, never cease to save your inheritance.

Communion Verse

I will take the chalice of salvation; and I will call upon the name of the Lord. Alleluia (3X)

Jokes of the Day

I was talking to my priest the other day and he's getting quite elderly now. He said to me, "You know, when you get as old as me you start to spend a lot of time thinking about the hereafter."
"Why do you say that?" I asked him.
He said, "Well nowadays I'm always going into a room and then stopping and thinking what did I come in here after?"
