Preparing for Liturgy
Part 1 of 3

We need to prepare for coming into the presence of God. Yes, God is all around us. Yes, God sees us at our best and at our worst. As humans, we need to prepare to be in His presence. When we get visitors to our house, we like to tidy-up and make things right for the visit. We clean our house, we will dress to receive company, and we behave a certain way depending on the company. Coming into God's presence is the same thing. We need to prepare our mind and body, "our house". We need to clean up our mind and soul to have God visit us. We need to take time before Liturgy to prepare ourselves. We cannot just rush around, arrive as the holy doors are opening and be distracted during Liturgy. If possible, one should take time the morning of Liturgy to prepare. Some can find quiet time before the kids awake. Some can come to church a little early to have quiet time with the Lord before worship. Some can go to confession. As in the Liturgy, we say, "Let us put aside all cares of life." This is what we need to do. Attending church is to let you transcend to another level. If you are truly worshipping God with their whole body and soul, you would not be aware of anything happening around you. Your focus is on worshipping the Trinity and being in the presence of God. Time will not matter. This is the goal of each and every one of us. We are family in Christ. Let's work on it together and help one another. Together in Christ, all things are possible.

19th Sunday after Pentecost

2 Corinthians 11:31-12:9

Luke 16:19-31

Troparion (Tone 2)

When You went down to death, O Life Immortal, You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. When You raised the dead from the nether world, all the powers of heaven cried out: “O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

Glory be...

Kondakion

You arose from the tomb, O Almighty Savior; and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose. Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults. And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

Now and forever ...

Theotokion

The tomb and death could not hold the Mother of God, unceasing in her intercession and unfailing hope of patronage, for as the Mother of Life she was transferred to life by Him Who had dwelt in her ever-virgin womb.

Prokeimenon (Tone 2)

The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

Verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Lord, grant victory to the king, and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3)

Thought of the Day

A mut moves into an exclusive neighborhood. His neighbors are three French poodles. He sees them in the yard and decides to meet the neighbors. The snooty poodles introduce themselves to their new neighbor. The first one say, “My name is pronounced Fifi and your spell it F-I-F-I.” Her sister says, “My name is pronounced Mimi and it is spelled M-I-M-I.” The other sister says, “My name pronounced Gigi and you spell it G-I-G-I.” The dog says, “Nice to meet you. My name is pronounced Fido and it is spelled P-H-Y-D-E-A-U-X.”
