

Know Your Church . . . Laity Formation

Next Sunday will be the Sunday of Orthodoxy. This is the day we commemorate the victory over the iconoclasts who tried to destroy any religious artwork. The dominant theme of this Sunday since 843 has been that of the victory of the icons. In that year the iconoclastic controversy, which had raged on and off since 726, was finally laid to rest, and icons and their veneration were restored on the first Sunday in Lent. Ever since, this Sunday has been commemorated as the "Triumph of Orthodoxy." The Seventh Ecumenical Council in Nicaea in 787 dealt with the controversy regarding icons and their place in Church worship. The Council decided on a doctrine by which icons should be venerated but not worshipped because worship is befitting only God.

This Sunday reflects the great significance which icons possess for the Church. They are not optional devotional extras, but an integral part of our faith and devotion. They are held to be a necessary consequence of Christian faith in the incarnation of the Word of God, the Second Person of the Trinity, in Jesus Christ. They have a sacramental character, making present to the believer the person or event depicted on them. Just like no church is complete without icons, no home is complete without an icon or even more an icon corner where the family prays together.

Next, bring your icons and Father will bless them following the Liturgy.

Joke of the Day

A snail named Samuel just got a raise working as a realtor. He decided since he got this money he will get a custom sports car with a big "S" on the side to show everyone the car is his. While he's flexing his new car down the streets of Los Angeles, he passes an elderly couple sitting on their porch. As he passes the man exclaims to his wife, " Look at that S-Car-Go!"
