Who were the Myrrh Bearers?

At least eight women are known to have come to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus. They are Mary Magdalene; Mary, the Theotokos; Joanna; Salome; Mary, the wife of Cleopas; Susanna; and Mary and Martha of Bethany. Five of these women were rich: Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Susanna, and Jesus dear friends, Mary and Martha. Three of these women were at the foot of the cross as Jesus was being crucified. They are Mary Magdalene, Jesus’ mother, and Salome. During Jesus’ ministry, these eight women had been together a lot. Some of them helped to fund His ministry. When these women arrived at the tomb, they found the stone rolled away, and were instructed to bring the joyful news to the Apostles that Jesus had risen. Why myrrh for a dead body? Myrrh, for one, has the fragrance to overtake the odor of decay. Secondly, Myrrh dries things out, so it absorbs the moisture from the body and preserves it from corruption. When the women arrived, the stone was still across the entrance of the tomb, but, as they were talking about how to remove the stone, an angel rolled the stone away. When the women looked, they saw the angel sitting on the stone, and entered the tomb, and the angel appeared with them there as well. He told them not to be afraid, and that “the Crucified” had risen. They were then instructed by the angel to go tell the disciples that Jesus was risen.

3rd Sunday of Pascha - Myrrh-bearing Women

Acts 6:1-7

Mark 15:43-16:8

Troparion (Tone 2)

When You went down to death, O Life Immortal, You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. When You raised the dead from the nether world, all the powers of heaven cried out:

“O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

Troparion (Tone 2)

The noble Joseph took down Your most pure body from the tree. He wrapped it with a clean shroud and aromatic spices and placed it in a new tomb.

But on the third day You arose, O Lord, granting the world Your great mercy.

Kondakion (Tone 2)

Glory be ... You commanded the myrrh-bearers to rejoice, O Christ God, and ended the grief of our mother Eve by Your Resurrection. You ordered the apostles to proclaim to all: “The Savior is risen from the tomb.”

Kondakion (Tone 2)

Now and forever... Though You descended into the tomb, O Immortal One, yet You destroyed the power of Hades; and You rose as victor, O Christ God, calling to the myrrh-bearing women: Rejoice! And giving peace to Your Apostles: You, who granted Resurrection to the fallen.

Prokeimen (Tone 6)

Save Your people, O Lord and bless Your inheritance.

verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

Save Your people, O Lord and bless Your inheritance.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse You have shown favor to Your land, O Lord; You brought back the captives of Jacob.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse Mercy and truth have met; righteousness and peace have embraced.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
