

Know Your Church . . . Laity Formation Readers and Cantors

The role of Cantor and Reader are essential to the Divine Liturgy. They are to help lead the people to God.

The Reader of the Epistles reads letters from the Apostles to the people in the faith communities. What is amazing is that the Epistles were written 2000 years ago and are still topics for life today. The reader will share the letters to the people for the people to learn from the early Christians.

The Cantor leads the singing of the services. A parish is best to have several cantors to share the work of leading the singing. When a parish has one cantor, the cantor is expected to be at all services. We know with schedules that many times it is not possible to do. Having several cantors share the duties would help the parish.

It is best for a parish to have several Readers and Cantors. If you would like to help the parish by being a Reader of Cantor, see Fr. Andriy.

If you are looking for a closer relationship with Jesus Christ and are looking for a home, you are welcome to be part of our family in Christ. You have found your way home.

21st Sunday after Pentecost

Galatians 2:16-20

Luke 16:19-31

Troparion (Tone 4)

When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the glorious news of the resurrection and cast off the ancestral condemnation, they proudly told the apostles: "Death has been plundered! Christ our God is risen, granting to the world great mercy."

Kondakion

My Savior and Deliverer from the grave as God has raised out of bondage the children of earth and shattered the gates of Hades; and as Master, He rose on the third day.

Theotokion

By your birth, O Immaculate One, Joachim and Anna were freed from the reproach of childlessness, and Adam and Eve from the corruption of death. And your people, redeemed from the guilt of their sins, celebrate as they cry out to you: "The barren one gives birth to the Mother of God and nourisher of our Life."

Prokeimen

How great are Your works, O Lord; You have made all things in wisdom.

Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

How great are Your works, O Lord; You have made all things in wisdom.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: You have loved justice and hated iniquity.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)

Joke of the Day

For Halloween, a little boy wanted to be the "Incredible Hulk". Using food coloring and a washcloth, his mother dyed his hands, face, neck, and blonde hair the green shade of the TV monster. After his bath the next morning, faint green tint still remained. As the boy was going out he door to school, he handed his mother a slip of paper he had forgotten to give her earlier. She quickly opened the note. It read: School pictures were going to be taken that day.
