Know Your Church . . . Laity Formation

"It is by offering our blessings back to God that He will be able to continue His forgiving, healing, liberating, empowering, transfiguring, loving ministry through the Church. For God, Infinite though He be, has chosen to work through us, through our gifts, to continue His saving work in the world today."

Stewardship reminds us that everything we have been given to us by God - not for us to have, but for us to care for as stewards, or caretakers. This is why we call those who are actively living the Christian life "stewards," because to live the Christian life fully means to recognize that we have received everything from God, and therefore we offer some of what we have received back in thanksgiving.

Stewardship is a way of life, which acknowledges accountability, reverence, and responsibility before God. A primary goal of Stewardship is to promote spiritual growth and strengthen faith. Becoming a Steward begins when we believe in God, to whom we give our love, loyalty and trust and act on those beliefs. As Stewards, we affirm that every aspect of our lives comes as a gift from Him. Stewardship calls on the faithful to cheerfully offer back to God a portion of the gifts with which they have been blessed.

Stewardship is an active participant in the life of the Church. The parish encourages all who accept the Faith to become practicing Stewards. Each year the Steward is expected to carefully review his or her personal circumstances and make a commitment of time, talent, and treasure to support the Parish and her Ministries.

Financial stewardship is an offering, and it is part of how we participate in the saving work of Christ and His Church. By offering back some of what has been given to us, we allow God to work through that offering "for the life of the world." Just as we offer bread and wine for the Liturgy which God transforms into the Body and Blood of Christ to transform us into the living Body of Christ, so do we offer our time, treasure, and talents to Christ and His Church so that God might receive them and transform them into the means not only of our salvation, but for all Creation.

2nd Sunday after Pentecost

Romans 5:1-10

Matthew 6:22-33

Troparion (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Troparion of St. Jude

As we know you to be Christ's relative and a steadfast martyr, O Jude, we praise you with sacred hymns. You trampled on error and kept the faith. And so on this day as we feast your memory through your prayers, O Apostle, we receive release from our sins. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kondakion of St. Jude

O Jude, because of your solid mind you were shown to be a chosen disciple and firm pillar of the Church of Christ. You proclaimed to the nations His holy word teaching them to believe in the one God form Whom you received glory and the gift of healing to cure the ills of those who flee to you, O Apostle, worthy of all praise.

Now and ever and for ever. Amen.

Kondakion

You arose in glory from the tomb and with Yourself You raised the world. All humanity acclaims You as God, and death has vanished. Adam exalts, O Master, and Eve, redeemed from bondage now, cries out for joy: "You are the One, O Christ, Who offers resurrection to all."

Prokeimen

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.
Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous.
Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Happy Father's Day

May our Lord bless each of fathers with good health, long life and many happy years.

Joke of the Day

When I was a child, my father was the manager of the supermarket in the meat department. My family called him the Head of the Meat Department. His title became a major issue one day when my bemused third grade teacher showed Dad my latest composition "All About My Dad". In a nine-year-old's vain attempt to master contractions, I had reduced my dad to a "meat-head"
