Holy Mysteries of Initiation

The Sacrament of Holy Eucharist, or Holy Communion, is optionally administered after the Baptism itself is complete. This is the first communion for all Eastern Rite Christians and is administered at every Divine Liturgy service. All Eastern Rite Christians are welcome to receive communion at each Divine Liturgy service when the proper preparations are made.

The rites of initiation with Eucharist are a new Christian's opportunity to begin his or her spiritual walk. In the Eastern Rite Church, the Initiation is most often done in infancy. During this ceremony, three sacraments are administered. These are Baptism, Chrismation, and Holy Communion or Eucharist. Baptism and Chrismation are only performed once in a lifetime. Holy Communion is given at each Liturgy service. The Initiation ceremony, in general, signifies the official beginning of the Christian life.

The Eucharist is both symbolic and mystical. Also, the Eucharist in the Eastern Rite Church is understood to be the genuine Body and Blood of Christ, precisely because bread and wine are the mysteries and symbols of God's true and genuine presence and his manifestation to us in Christ.

The mystery of the Holy Eucharist defies analysis and explanation in purely rational and logical terms. For the Eucharist, as Christ himself, is a mystery of the Kingdom of Heaven which, as Jesus has told us, is "not of this world." The Eucharist, because it belongs to God's Kingdom, is truly free from the earth-born "logic" of fallen humanity.

Joke of the Day

Who is the greatest babysitter mentioned in the Bible?
David. He rocked Goliath to a very deep sleep.

My friend keeps saying "cheer up man it could be worse, you could be stuck underground in a hole full of water."
I know he means well.
