Divine Liturgy Part 2

The physical movements of the body associated with prayer are useful, for they permit the entire body to participate in prayer and to be blessed by it. Physical movements help us to focus our thoughts. The sign of the cross is an expression of our faith in the crucified Lord. Accordingly, the movement of our hand making the sign of the Cross should unite with our feelings and thoughts directed to the Cross of Christ whose sign we place upon ourselves. Otherwise, it is what some characterized as “waving of the hand” or, as what used to be called in olden times “polishing buttons.” Before making the sign of the cross, one must direct one’s heart and mind toward the Crucified Lord. Before making a prostration, one must feel one’s submission and obedience to God. Before kissing an icon or placing a candle before it, one must have love and reverence for the one depicted on the icon. It is only under those conditions that the Church permits the use of external rituals and symbols. We bow our heads each time the priest says “Bow your heads (or ‘let us bow our heads’) unto the Lord,” for during these times the priest reads a prayer on behalf of all. We should make the sign of the cross with all due care and attention. It is better not to make the sign of the cross at all than to make it carelessly.

Sunday before the Exaltaion of the Holy and Life-giving Cross
Post Fest of the Nativity of the Mother of God

Galatians 6:11-18

John 3:13-17

Troparion (Tone5)

Let us the faithful acclaim and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, and born of the Virgin for our salvation. For He willed to be lifted up on the cross in the flesh, to suffer death and to raise the dead by His glorious resurrection.

Troparion of Nativity of the Mother of God

Your nativity, O Mother of God, has made joy known to all the world, for from you dawned the Sun of Righteousness, Christ our God. He abolished the curse and gave the blessing; and by making death of no effect He bestowed on us eternal life.

Kondakion of the Nativity of the Mother of God

Glory be... By your birth, O immaculate one, Joachim and Anna were freed from the reproach of childlessness, and Adam and Eve from the corruption of death. And your people, redeemed from the guilt of their sins, celebrate as they cry out to you: "The barren one gives birth to the Mother of God and nourisher of our life."

Prokeimen of the Sunday before the Exaltation

Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: I have exalted one chosen from among My people;
with My holy oil I have anointed him.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: Indeed, My hand shall sustain him, and my arm shall make him strong.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Hymn to the Mother of God

O my soul, magnify the Virgin Mary born from a barren womb. Virginity is alien to mothers and childbearing is foreign to virgins; yet in you, O Mother of God, both of them came together. Therefore we and all the nations of the earth without ceasing magnify you.

Communion Verse

I will take the chalice of salvation; and I will call upon the name of the Lord. Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3)

For those who have fallen asleep in the Lord: In blessed sleep grant eternal rest, O Lord, to Your ever-to-be-remembered servants and make their memory eternal.

Eternal Memory, Eternal Memory, Eternal Memory.

Joke of the Day

A couple drove down a country road for several miles, not saying a word. An earlier discussion had led to an argument and neither of them wanted to concede their position. As they passed a barnyard of mules, goats, and pigs, the husband asked sarcastically, "Relatives of yours?" "Yep," the wife replied, "in-laws."
