Know Your Church . . . Laity Formation

The Divine Liturgy is the eucharistic church service performed by a priest or bishop, with the assistance of a deacon. The most fundamental of Christian church services, the Divine Liturgy symbolically commemorates the earthly life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Divine Liturgy used by Ukrainians dates from the 4th century but acquired its present format in the 9th century. The Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom is the most commonly used and is celebrated on Sundays and weekdays. The Divine Liturgy might be described as a series of connected prayer sequences or as the divine drama (leitourgia). It is celebrated in three parts: the prayers of entry, with vesting and Proskomedie (2) the Liturgy of the Catechumens or the Word; and (3) the Liturgy of the Faithful or the Eucharist, which includes the Anaphora and Communion. The Ukrainian celebration of the Liturgy involves numerous well-developed practices, including the assistance of deacons in the service (when they are available), a pronounced spatial division between priest and congregation, symbolic processions by the bishop or a priest and his retinue around the altar, and the extensive use of candles and incense. 1 Corinthians 16:13-24

Matthew 21:33-42

Troparion (Tone 4)

When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the glorious news of the resurrection and cast off the ancestral condemnation, they proudly told the apostles: "Death has been plundered! Christ our God is risen, granting to the world great mercy."

Kondakion

My Savior and Deliverer from the grave as God has raised out of bondage the children of earth and shattered the gates of Hades; and as Master, He rose on the third day.

Theotokion

By your birth, O Immaculate One, Joachim and Anna were freed from the reproach of childlessness, and Adam and Eve from the corruption of death. And your people, redeemed from the guilt of their sins, celebrate as they cry out to you: "The barren one gives birth to the Mother of God and nourisher of our Life."

Prokeimen

How great are Your works, O Lord; You have made all things in wisdom.

Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

How great are Your works, O Lord; You have made all things in wisdom.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse: You have loved justice and hated iniquity.

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)

Joke of the Day

A man and his wife are awakened by a loud pounding on the door at 3:00 AM. The man gets up and goes to the door to see a stranger, who had too much to drink, standing there. The man, soaked to the skin from the pouring rain asks for a push. "Not a chance," says the man, and slams the door and goes back to bed. "Who was that?" asks his wife. "Just some drunk, asking for a push," says the man. "Did you help him?" asks his wife. "No, I did not. It is 3:00 in the morning and it is pouring rain out there." "Well, you have a short memory," says the wife. "Can't you remember about three months ago when we broke down, and those two guys helped us? I think you should help him, and you should be ashamed of yourself." The man does as he is told, gets dressed, and goes out into the pounding rain. He calls out into the dark, "Hello, are you still there?" "Yes," comes back the answer. "Do you still need a push?" calls the husband. "Yes, please!" comes the cry from the dark. "Where are you?" calls the husband. "Over here on the swing!" replies the man who knocked on the door.
