Know Your Church . . . Laity Formation

Fifth Sunday of the Great Fast

In this hectic pace of the modern world, you and I are miniscule items among the millions who feed the selfish 'me world' to flourish. In the churches, communities, offices and everywhere else, people are approached as machines. But Jesus sees, calls, touches and heals us in compassion with real love for his children. We see here two approaches - the compassionate and genuine way of Jesus, and the hypocritical way of people. It took 18 years for a crippled woman who was a regular church-goer to be accepted, loved and healed from her infirmities. The religious leaders could not and did not do anything for her. But the first day Jesus saw her, he called and healed her thus freeing her from shame and sickness. The temple priests were upset that Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath day, to which Jesus rightly called them "You hypocrites". He did so because they would untie their animals and care for them on the Sabbath Day, but refused to rejoice when a human being was freed from satanic bond and healed. The religious leaders saw healing as part of a doctor's profession for money. So practicing one's profession on the Sabbath was prohibited. They could not see beyond the law to Jesus' compassion in healing the crippled woman. Actually healing is the work of God. And the root cause / source of all the illness sprouted from the bosom of Satan, the serpent who cheated Adam and Eve, the first couple. In a nutshell, we should be in Jesus and Christ should be within us. We should say goodbye to all our hypocritical church attendance and faithless non-Christian way of life from Monday to Saturday. No human effort can eradicate the sickness of cancer, heart failure, diabetes, HIV and Aids etc. Even if Science can find a solution, then some other more deadly sickness will emerge. So the only solution is to look up to Jesus who was crucified for our infirmities and to crush the face of Satan.

Troparion (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Troparion of Annunciation (Tone 4)

Today is the crown of our salvation, and the unfolding of the eternal mystery; the Son of God becomes the Virgin's Son, and Gabriel brings the good tidings of grace. With him let us also cry to the Mother of God: Rejoice, Full of grace! The Lord is with you.

Kondakion (Tone 4)

Glory be ... To You, O Mother of God, the invincible leader, we, your servants, ascribe these victory hymns in thanksgiving for our deliverance from evil. With your invincible power free us from all dangers that we may cry out to you: "Hail, O Bride and pure Virgin!"

Prokeimen (Tone 4)

Proclaim from day to day the good tidings of our God's salvation.

Verse: Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth.

Proclaim from day to day the good tidings of our God's salvation.

Alleluia (Tone 1)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Joke of the Day

In his late 80s, my father-in-law went to the DMV to renew his driver's license. At one point during the road test, he approached a four-way stop, looked to his left, and cruised straight through the stop sign. "Sir! You didn't look to your right," yelled the frightened inspector. My father-in-law calmly shook his head. "That's my wife's side."
