Know Your Church . . .

The Tetrapod

The Tetrapod

In the particular tradition of our church, a small four-legged table called the tetrapod may stand before the ambo/solea, with an icon of the saint of the day, which the faithful venerate with a bow and a kiss when they come into the church.

Upon entering the church, before receiving Communion, and prior to leaving the church, the faithful are invited to walk up to the tetrapod, cross themselves, and kiss the icons placed there. At various times, the Gospel book or cross may also be placed on the tetrapod for the people's veneration.

The sacraments of Baptism and Marriage, as well as several services are performed there.

Commemoration of the First Six Ecumenical Councils

1 Corinthians 3:9-17

Troparion (Tone 7)

By Your cross You destroyed death; You opened Paradise to the thief; You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy, and charged the apostles to proclaim that You are risen, O Christ our God, offering great mercy to the world.

Troparion of the Fathers (Tone 8)

Christ our God, You are glorified above all, You established our fathers as beacons on earth and through them guided all of us to the true faith. Glory to You, most compassion Lord.

Kondakion of the Fathers (Tone 6)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

The Son who ineffably shone from the Father was born twofold of nature from a woman. Beholding Him, we do not reject the image of His form; but depicting it we revere it faithfully. Therefore the Church, holding the true faith, kisses the icon of Christ's becoming man.

Kondakion (Tone 7)

Now and forever and ever. Amen. No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity, for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers. Hades is bound. The prophets exult with one voice. The Savior has come for those with faith, saying: "Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!"

Prokeimen

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Verse Bring to the Lord, O you sons for God; bring to the Lord young rams.

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing in Your name, O Most High.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

To announce Your mercy in the morning and Your truth every night.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)
