Elements of the Liturgy
Christian liturgy consists of words and actions, along with the chant that accompanies them and the theology behind them.

Exclamations
Throughout the liturgical services, there are many points at which the priest or deacon will "cry out" in some fashion. These exclamations include blessings (by the priest or bishop), directives (given by the deacon, or in his absence by the priest), and the people's responses.

Blessings
To bless God is to praise him; to bless people is to call down God's favor upon them; to bless a thing is to dedicate it to a holy purpose. Blessed is our God, always, now and for ever and ever.
The office of Matins abounds in these expressions of praise:
Glory to the holy, consubstantial, life-creating and undivided Trinity, always, now and for ever and ever.
Glory to you who show us the light!
At the end of the Divine Liturgy, the faithful are blessed:
The blessing of the Lord be upon you through his grace and loving kindness, always, now and for ever and ever.
And the liturgical books have special blessings for all sorts of objects:
This orchard is blessed by the sprinkling of this holy water, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

15th Sunday after Pentecost
Beginning of the Liturgical Year - 7533

2 Corinthians 4:6-15

Matthew 22:35-46

Troparion (Tone 6)

Angelic powers were upon Your tomb and the guards became like dead men; Mary stood before Your tomb seeking Your most pure body. You captured Hades without being overcome by it. You met the Virgin and granted life. O Lord, risen from the dead, glory to You!

Tropar for the New Year (Tone 2)

Fashioner of all creation, you fixed times and seasons by Your own authority; bless the crown of the year, O Lord, with Your goodness, preserving our nation and Your city in peace; and save us through the prayers of the Mother of God. Glory be...

Kondakion (Tone 6)

With His life-giving hand Christ our God, the Giver of Life, raised all the dead from the murky abyss and bestowed resurrection upon humanity. He is for all the Savior, the resurrection and the life, and the God of all. Now and for ever...

Kondak for the New Year (Tone 2)

You dwell on high, O Christ the King, Creator and Builder of all that is seen and unseen. You made seasons and time and the day and night. Now bless the crown of the present year. Guard and protect our country, this city and your people, O Lord, so rich in mercy.

Prokeimen (Tone 6)

Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Verse Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse He who lives in the aid of the Most High, shall dwell under the protection of the God of Heaven.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Verse He says to the Lord: You are my protector and my refuge, my God, in Whom I hope.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. (3)

Joke of the Day

A church is holding a bake sale to raise funds.

On the bake sale counter, a sign reads:

“Cupcakes: $9 for a dozen, or $30 for three dozen.” A man approaches the volunteer working the counter and exclaims, “That’s absurd! It’s cheaper to buy each dozen individually, don’t you get it?”

The volunteer smiles patiently and asks if that’s what he wants to do. He agrees and points out to the volunteer that he has saved $3 by purchasing them individually. Once again, she smiles patiently and after he leaves, she leans over to the pastor and says, “I told you I could get visitors to buy more than a dozen cupcakes at a time.”
