Elements of the Liturgy

Hymns

While a prayer is usually a request directed to God, and spoken by one person on behalf of the community, a liturgical hymn is more likely to be a song of praise to God or one of the saints, and sung by the entire congregation or a choir. These hymns are often extremely ancient, and associated with particular services:

- The evening hymn, "O Joyful Light" (Vespers)
- The responsorial hymn, "God is with us" (Compline)
- The canticle of the Theotokos, "My soul magnifies the Lord" (Matins)
- The morning hymn, "Glory to God in the highest" (Matins)
- The Cherubic Hymn, "Let us who mystically represent the cherubim" (Divine Liturgy)
- The hymn of victory, "Holy, holy, holy" (Divine Liturgy)
- The hymn to the Theotokos, "It is truly proper to glorify you" (Divine Liturgy)

Like litanies and prayers, hymns are core parts of the "structure" of Byzantine services. (We sometimes use the word "hymn" to refer to other sung texts, such as stichera and troparia, or even spiritual songs sung outside the liturgy.)

18th Sunday after Pentecost

2Corinthians 9:6-11

Luke 5:1-11

Troparion (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Kondakion

You arose in glory from the tomb and with Yourself You raised the world. All humanity acclaims You as God, and death has vanished. Adam exalts, O Master, and Eve, redeemed from bondage now, cries out for joy: "You are the One, O Christ, Who offers resurrection to all."

Theotokion

When Gabriel uttered to you, O Virgin, his "Rejoice!" - at that sound the Master of all became flesh in you, the Holy Ark. As the just David said, you have become wider than the heavens carrying your Creator. Glory to Him Who dwelt in you! Glory to Him Who came forth from you! Glory to Him Who freed us through birth from you!

Prokeimen

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You. Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous. Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3)

Joke of the Day

The ninety-five year old woman at the nursing home received a visit from one of her fellow church members. 'How are you feeling Mary?' the visitor asked. 'Oh,' said the lady, 'I'm just worried sick!' 'What are you worried about, dear?' her friend asked. 'You look like you're in good health. They are taking care of you, aren't they?' 'Yes, they are taking very good care of me.' 'Are you in any pain?' she asked. 'No, I have never had a pain in my life.' 'Well, what are you worried about?' her friend asked again. The lady leaned back in her rocking chair and slowly explained her major worry. 'Every close friend I ever had has already died and gone on to heaven. I'm afraid they're all wondering where I went.'
