The Body in Worship

Touch

Water, too, has a multitude of meanings; it surrounds us before birth, is necessary to all life and useful for cleansing. Passage through the waters of the Red Sea saved the Israelites while drowning their pursuers; in the desert, God provided water miraculously for his people, and Christ referred to himself as "living water." In baptism, we die symbolically with Christ, leaving our sins behind. Water is blessed in the ritual of baptism and at Theophany, and sprinkled upon persons and objects being blessed. Oil, used in early times for healing, for preparing athletes for competition, and to dedicate prophets, kings and priests to God, is used to anoint those being baptized, and the sick in need of healing. On feast days, oil is blessed along with the other natural gifts of bread, wheat, and wine, and distributed to the faithful. Like incense, the richly scented oil reminds us of the many blessings God bestows on us.

26th Sunday after Pentecost

Ephesians 5:9-19

Luke 12:16-21

Troparion (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Judeans and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of Life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Kondakion

You arose in glory from the tomb and with Yourself You raised the world. All humanity acclaims You as God, and death has vanished. Adam exalts, O Master, and Eve, redeemed from bondage now, cries out for joy: "You are the One, O Christ, Who offers resurrection to all."

Theotokion

When Gabriel uttered to you, O Virgin, his "Rejoice!" - at that sound the Master of all became flesh in you, the Holy Ark. As the just David said, you have become wider than the heavens carrying your Creator. Glory to Him Who dwelt in you! Glory to Him Who came forth from you! Glory to Him Who freed us through birth from you!

Prokeimenon

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You. Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous. Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity forever.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia (3)

Joke of the Day

A big, burly man visited the pastor's home and asked to see the minister's wife, a woman well known for her charitable impulses. "Madam," he said in a broken voice, "I wish to draw your attention to the terrible plight of a poor family in this district. The father is dead, the mother is too ill to work, and the nine children are starving. They are about to be turned into the cold, empty streets unless someone pays their rent, which amounts to $400." "How terrible!" exclaimed the preacher's wife. "May I ask who you are?" The sympathetic visitor applied his handkerchief to his eyes. "I'm the landlord," he sobbed.
