

St. Andrew the First Called

Today is the Feast of St. Andrew the First-Called. The following prayer is for your use today, to celebrate the Apostle who was the first to answer Jesus’ call without hesitation. May it be so with us!

First-Called Apostle of our God and Savior Jesus Christ, first-called follower of the Church, most praiseworthy Andrew! We honor and glorify your Apostolic labors, we lovingly commemorate your blessed coming to us, we remember and revere your honorable sufferings by crucifixion, which you bore for Christ; we venerate your sacred relics, we honor your holy memory, and firmly believe that the Lord lives and that your soul lives as well. You remain with him for all ages in heaven, where you have the same love for us as when you, in the Holy Spirit, foresaw our conversion to Christ. You not only love us, but pray also for us unto God, seeing all our needs in His light. Thus we believe and in our faith we confess, O Saint Andrew, blessed Apostle of the Lord, we ask and pray our Lord, God and Savior Jesus Christ that by your prayers, always heard and accepted by Him, He may grant us sinners all those things needful unto our salvation and holiness. As you, according to the Lord’s voice, promptly left your nets and followed him unwaveringly, may each of us seek not that which is for ourselves, but think rather of the care and consolation of our neighbor and may support our neighbor’s higher spiritual calling.

And, having you as a representative and intercessor, we have hope in your prayers, which avail much before our Lord Jesus Christ, to Whom belongs all glory, honor and worship, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen!

Ephesians 4:1-6

Luke 13:10-17

Resurrectional Troparion (Tone 8)

You came down from on high, O Merciful One, and accepted three days for burial to free us from our sufferings. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory be to You.

Troparion of the Feast (Tone 4)

As the first-called of the apostles and full brother of their leader implore the Master of all to give peace to the world and—to our souls— great mercy.

Kondakion of the Feast (Tone 2)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Let us praise God’s herald, whose name is courage, Peter’s kinsman who leads those in the Church who follow the chief apostle, for as then to Peter so now ti us he cries aloud: “We have found the One so longed for.”

Resurrectional Kodakion (Tone 8)

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

When You rose from the tomb, You also raised the dead and resurrected Adam. Eve exults in Your resurrection, and the ends of the world celebrate Your rising from the dead, O most merciful One.

Prokeimen

Pray and give praise to the Lord our God. Pray and give praise to the Lord our God.
verse: In Judea God is known; His name is great in Israel.

Pray and give praise to the Lord our God. Pray and give praise to the Lord our God.

Alleluia

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Come, let us rejoice in the Lord; let us acclaim God our Savior.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Let us come before His countenance with praise and acclaim Him with psalms.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Communion Verse

Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the highest.

Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Alleluia. (3)

Joke of the Day	A distraught senior citizen dialed her doctor’s office. “Is it true,” she wanted to know, “that the medication you prescribed has to be taken for the rest of my life?” “Yes, I’m afraid so,” said the doctor. There was a moment of silence before the woman replied, “I’m wondering, then, just how serious my condition is, because this prescription is marked ‘No Refills.’”
