

Cheesefare Sunday

Adam was cast out of Paradise eating the bitter food and lacking self-constraint, keeping not the Master's commandment, and was thereby condemned to work the earth from which he had himself been taken, eating his bread in toil.. Seated before the gates he wept, lamenting with a pitiful voice and saying: "Woe is me, what have I suffered in my misery! I transgressed one commandment of the Master, and now I am deprived of every blessing. O most holy Paradise, planted for my sake and shut because of Eve, pray to Him that made you and fashioned me, that once more I may take pleasure in your flowers." Then the Saviour said to him: "I desire not the loss of the creature which I fashioned, but that he should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth; and when he comes to me I will not cast him out." Let us love abstinence, that we not weep as he did outside the gates of Paradise, but by it may we enter therein. The season of the virtues has now appeared, and the judge is at the door. Let us not be of a sullen countenance, let us keep the Fast, offering tears, contrition, and almsgiving; and let us cry aloud: We have sinned more than there are grains of sand in the sea; but, O Redeemer of mankind, forgive each of us, that we may receive a crown of incorruption. We were once banished, O Lord, from Paradise, through eating from the Tree; but You have led us back again, O my God and Saviour, through Your Cross and Passion. Strengthen us by these, that we may keep the Fast in holiness and worship Your divine arising, the Passover of salvation, by the prayers of her who gave birth to You.

Joke of the Day

During World War II my parents had planned a romantic early Spring wedding. Suddenly my father, then stationed at Camp Edwards in Massachusetts, received orders to prepare to ship out, and all leaves were cancelled. Being a young man in love, he went AWOL. He and my mother were married four days earlier than originally planned and he returned to base to an angry sergeant. After hearing the explanation, the sergeant understandingly replied, 'Okay, okay!' Then, as an afterthought: 'But don't let it happen again!'
